

Deep Recording Studio's London W10

We are located inside private basement units below a building known as 'The Harrow Building'
1 minute from 'Latimer Road' tube station.

Drive into Freston Road..see large church building on left directly after 'Shurgard Storage' units at end of Freston Road, after passing under tube overground bridge. Meter parking at 50p per hour.

DEEP RECORDING STUDIOS
187 FRESTON ROAD
LONDON W10 6TH

If you are walking to us from tube station:

Cross the road from tube station exit and walk down small road known as 'SHALFLEET DRIVE'

There on your immediate left is a pathway next to residential garages, follow path towards a huge block of flats on your right.

At end of path is a huge 200 year old church (Harrow Building) go to the building's reception and ask them to call deep studios.....explaining you are simply here for an appointment with the studio.

Please note: the building has a general/temp receptionist situation at present which has no connection to the daily work and staffing of deep studios.

So if reception is unattended call us directly on arrival: 020 8206 5850

Thank you.
